

THE ULTIMATE FIESTA

What better way to celebrate a 5th birthday than a fabulous fiesta? When Aminah's parents asked Nicole Marie Events to merge a stylish fiesta with the newly popular L.O.L Doll character, Nicole Marie took on the challenge and nailed every single detail.

From vibrant table settings that included mini maracas and personal customized cookies, to the elaborate bubble show, this party didn't skip a beat.

Here are a few more details that caught our eye on this festive day.

- Tasty Margarita and Sangria bar crafted for parents only
- Creative coloring station for kiddos who didn't want the inspiration to end
- Authentic Jarritos sodas for each guest to quench their thirst with flavors all the way from Mexico
- Life-Size L.O.L Doll Cake that was equally as tasty as it was beautiful

As you can imagine Aminah and her guests had a blast and took home memories that will last forever. If you're looking to add a special touch to your upcoming occasion, you can always count on Nicole Marie Events.
